

Services Statistics 2024

The Services Statistics publication 2024 showed that the number of schools reached 31,412, an increase of 181 schools compared to 2023. The number of government technical and vocational training institutes amounted to 95, while the number of private institutes reached 2,078. The results also indicated that the number of Saudi Red Crescent centers reached 517, and the number of mosques and grand mosques reached 78,094. The publication includes spatial details on the key services available across regions, governorates, centers, cities, and villages in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for 2024.

Key statistics on educational services

According to the Services Statistics publication, public education schools constituted 76.6% of the total number of schools, amounting to 24,075 schools, including 14,812 for females. In comparison, private education schools made up 23.4%, with a total of 7,337 schools, of which 4,693 were females' schools (Figure1).

Figure 1. Number of public and private schools for males and females in the Kingdom 2024

Key statistics of tourism and sports services

The total number of hotels reached 2,163, offering 398,574 rooms, while the number of travel and tourism agencies totaled 2,734. The Kingdom had 29 airports, including 19 international and 10 regional airports, handling over 900,000 flights. Additionally, there were 23 youth hostels and 34 sports cities and stadiums, distributed across all regions and governorates of the Kingdom.

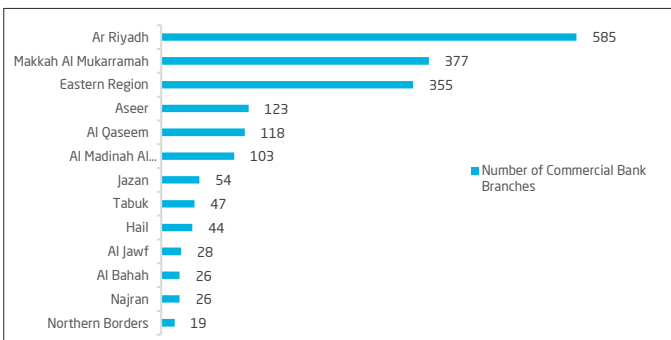

Key statistics of municipal, agricultural, and industrial services

Statistics showed that the total number of municipalities' administrations in the Kingdom was 17, with 380 municipalities, including 112 sub-municipalities spread across all administrative regions. The Ministry of Environment, Water, and Agriculture had 13 branches, overseeing 112 branch offices across the Kingdom. Furthermore, the total number of industrial cities was 37, containing 4,152 operational factories.

Key statistics on banking services

The total number of commercial bank branches reached 1,905, with over 15,000 ATMs. Social Development Bank had 25 branches, and the Agricultural Development Fund had 61 branches distributed across the Kingdom's regions and governorates (Figure2).

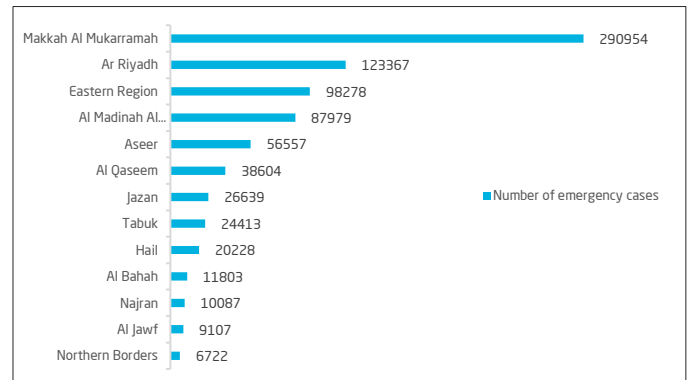

Figure 2. Number of Commercial Bank Branches Across the Kingdom's Regions 202

Key statistics on civil defense and ambulance services

The total number of Civil Defense centers reached 765, while the number of Saudi Red Crescent ambulance centers was 517, staffed by 5,477 paramedics who responded to over 800,000 emergency cases (Figure3).

Figure 3. Number of emergency cases across the Kingdom's regions, 2024

Key social and commercial services

The Services Statistics results showed that there were 106 Social Security offices and branches, 39 Social Development centers, and 39 Labor offices. The General Organization for Social Insurance had 22 branches and offices, while Chambers of Commerce operated 86 branches, comprising 287 committees and 62 subcommittees.

Key indicators of Public Services Statistics publication 2024

Indicator	Unit	2023	2024
Number of schools in the Kingdom	Number	31,231	31,412
Number of municipalities and sub-municipalities in the Kingdom		396	380
Number of Ministry of Environment, Water, and Agriculture branches and offices in the Kingdom		121	125
Number of Saudi Red Crescent ambulance centers in the Kingdom		609	517
Number of Civil Defense centers in the Kingdom		765	765
Number of commercial bank branches in the Kingdom		1,901	1,905
Number of international and regional airports in the Kingdom		29	29
Number of Social Security offices in the Kingdom		103	106

Tables.

Methodology and Quality

The Services Statistics publication 2024 focuses on listing available services and maintaining detailed data according to governorates and administrative regions, based on the administrative divisions. The publication uses a quantitative approach, relying on administrative records from data-owning entities. It specifies the type of service and the number of available units and provides a comprehensive overview of all services included in the publication.

For more details, please refer to the Methodology and Quality.